Ruchira Gupta: Resisting India’s Rape Culture

Wednesday, April 8th
4:00pm | Bunche 6275

Light Refreshments will be provided

Ruchira Gupta is the Founder and President of Apne Aap Women Worldwide – a grassroots organization in India working to end sex trafficking by increasing choices for at-risk girls and women. She has strived over her 25 year career to highlight the link between trafficking and prostitution laws, and to lobby policy makers to shift attention from victims to perpetrators.

Sponsored by the Department of History, Emphasis in History of Women, Men and Sexuality, Center for India and South Asia, Center for the Study of Women
